Intern in the real world... at the University of Virginia.

U.Va.'s 2014 Summer Internship Program offers current college students or recent graduates the opportunity to gain experience working in various schools and departments at the University of Virginia.

Up to nine students will be accepted in the program and will work 40 hours per week beginning Monday, June 2 through Thursday, July 24, 2014. The rate of pay is $12.00/hr.

Positions will be posted at jobs.virginia.edu on Monday February 3, 2014. More information about the program, including comments from past interns and the areas in which they worked, can be found here: http://www.hr.virginia.edu/go/uva-intern

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS*

• Cover Letter
• Resume
• Unofficial Transcript
• Maximum one-page response to the essay question: “Please tell us what interests you most about this opportunity and explain how your background and experience have prepared you for this role.”
• No other documents required or accepted.

*Due to volume of interest, incomplete or incorrect applications cannot be considered, so please review your submission carefully. The University of Virginia is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer committed to diversity, equity, and inclusiveness.